Harvey E. Najim Family Foundation Priorities:

Food, Shelter and Clothing

Program / Project Description:

CAM is seeking financial assistance from the Najim Foundation to support our safety net services with a focus on items and financial assistance for child related items. CAM is seeking funding to support our ongoing efforts to provide immediate assistance to families facing long term issues of poverty or short term and 1 time crisis that could impact the health and well being of San Antonio children. While meeting these needs and assisting with tangible resources, we provide immediate case management to help link the clients to the "specialist" in our community that might be able to address the long term systemic issues.

Our work focuses on overcoming barriers caused by over burdensome government requirements, appointments, waiting lists, and demographic requirements while also addressing the need for immediate help that is often necessary for our clients in crisis. CAM refers to itself as the "emergency room of social services". All are welcome, no appointment required; we meet the most urgent need and then connect folks to the specialists. Our help means that clients can feed their children that day, purchase an important birth certificate needed for health, care, housing or school enrollment or provide diapers, formula and clothing to their children. Not only are these tangible needs vital but they can provide important relief to parents already struggling with stress that can lead to abuse and neglect of their children.

Our 43 year old program is well established and benefits from lesson's learned and ongoing implementation. During this world pandemic CAM services, resources and ability to serve quickly has made it an even more vital resource to families and their children. We anticipate the community need and the need for vital resources for children to be even greater during this crisis. Most, if not all, of our resources try to connect the client (the child and her family) to long-term help or resolution. Each client arrives at CAM and begins getting help through a personal interview to assess their need, they are then provided with an array of resources to best meet immediate needs and helped to connect to long term community help when appropriate.

CAM is one of the few organizations in the city that provides funding for birth certificates for children needing to enroll in school or families seeking healthcare or housing. This vital service provides identification for hundreds of children every year, allowing them to begin their education or families to be able to obtain the assistance they may qualify to receive (i.e. subsidized housing, health care for their children). These funds will support CAM's total Cash-in-Aid budget, which is often stretched thin as identification recovery is the most demanded services at CAM. CAM also plans to utilize requested dollars to support our food and clothing assistance with a specific focus on items that cannot be donated such as underwear, socks, diapers, formula and baby food. CAM provides this as a resource to children and families. This help with clothing and food is vital to many working poor families or families displaced because of abuse or a tragedy.

Finally, CAM is requesting funds to support our annual Back to School program and Christmas Shop program. This request helps CAM accomplish the part of its mission that seeks to provide "to provide immediate assistance and encouragement to people in crisis." This program is currently operated entirely by volunteers. Individuals adopt a child and purchase the exact school requirements and back pack for said child. CAM will then provide underwear, socks, a shoe voucher and 2 school uniforms. CAM is one of the only back to school programs that personalizes and ensures that children have exactly what they need for the school year. Our Christmas Shop is also volunteer led and run by new toy donations received by the community. During the Christmas season, the volunteers disperse toys to families in crisis who do not have the means to even afford basic necessities. What many may not realize is that families who do not know they are going to be facing a crisis cannot enroll in local programs. Elf Louise, Toys for Tots, etc. all require knowledge of the need and enrollment by fall of that year.

Families facing an unexpected crisis (loss of job, spouse passing away, fire in the home, fleeing an abusive situation, pandemic) in December have no place to turn. This may not seem like a necessity but often the hopelessness parent's face at this time of year, when they can't provide for Christmas, accompanied by a child feeling like he or she wasn't good enough to receive gifts, has a compounded negative impact on the family. Individuals donate items and CAM uses requested dollars to fill in the gaps and needed items as we help families during Christmas. As we are sure you are well aware, we often have to turn folks away when we run out of resources or specific items year round. The Najim Foundation dollars can ensure that we can say yes to the many folks who have no place to turn, looking to care for their children, and we can provide vital needs for the health and well being of children in our community.

Evaluation Plan:

We evaluate our progress by documenting and tracking clients served through the shared HMIS system. This is reported monthly to our board of directors and evaluated by our client services staff which allows us to evaluate client needs monthly and annually. We are able to see immediate results of our services by providing the food, clothing, prescription or school supply a child needs. In addition, much of our work is related to a long term solution such as required documents to enroll in a program or a referral from another agency that allows us to know our immediate, one time help is connected to an overall plan for a long term solution. CAM resources are identified by United Way as their top 5 requests that come into the 211 hotline.

Plans to sustain project beyond the term of this request:

CAM actively works on raising dollars through fund diversification. We will continue to cultivate dollars through fundraising efforts including our annual Gala, Big Give and our Queso Meltdown. We have an active community of churches that support CAM and we will continue to work and cultivate new churches. Individual donors play a big role in the support of CAM and finally we will continue to solicit funding through grants. CAM also benefits from donated items, donated property and an active volunteer program that ensures we are able to continue and support our mission.
