---------------------------------	-------------------------------

Harvey E. Najim Family Foundation Priorities:
Food, Shelter and Clothing

Program / Project Description:
Our goal is to ensure that children that need food are serviced. That families do not struggle with providing their children shoes, or clothes needed during the school year. Families with children seeking emergency assistance with rent, light or water so that children will not go without.

Rivercity Outreach welcomes all with open arms and we service all of San Antonio and around South-Central Texas.

Our goal is to service over 4,000 families the 6-months with the food distributions, maintain an emergency food pantry for those in additional need. Offer emergency rental and utility assistance for families with children, so no child goes with out shelter, and offer clothing assistance for families with children, who cannot afford to clothe children due to loss of employment, reduction in pay, and or are in need with support financial challenges.

Evaluation Plan:

All families requesting assistance with meet with the Director to determine family need and child/ children current needs. Once the need is determined that family member requesting the assistance with meet with the Outreach Coordinator to assist with any of the following, additional resources if needed, resume writing and career services, referrals to agencies that maybe able to assist with additional supports for child/children and families.

The additional support service is available to assist in assuring that a plan of action is created to assist with upcoming challenges that may arise and support from our team to ensure that they remain self sufficient and that the child/children have a home and utilities.

Plans to sustain project beyond the term of this request:

Rivercity is working on accreditations for adult training programs to be offered. Incoming revenue will be allocated to fund community projects to include The Open Arms Program. It may take a year to get the operations fully functional but it will allow us time to continue to offer our services.
